

Calendar 2021 a Work in Progress

2020 has been the experience of a lifetime that I wish the world had not experienced but as it is we are all in it and it is a constantly evolving situation.

Now in 2021 things appear to be even more volatile.

Our plan is to reintroduce limited activities as and when the province deems it safer to do so and when we do we will begin with outside activities taking advantage of the summer and slowly reintroduce indoor activities in limited groups being ever mindful of social distancing and other Public Health guidelines
